

Mr. Walter Reed Wolf,
Administration Building.

Dear Mr. Wolf:

25X1A9a

It is with great regret that I inform you that I have tendered my resignation to [REDACTED]. After [REDACTED] left, Mr. [REDACTED] abolished the job that I came down here to do because he was not in sympathy with it. I cannot be convinced that Mr. [REDACTED] has now shifted his position through conviction. Because of these circumstances, I feel that my constructive usefulness to the Personnel Procurement Division is impaired.

I have had three outstanding experiences during my seven months affiliation with CIA. The first was being accepted to come aboard; the second was my association with [REDACTED] and the third was the privilege of having three conferences with you. As I stated at one of our talks, I would have liked to have had an assignment under you, and I do want you to know that I am deeply grateful for the time you gave to me.

Hoping that your trip abroad will afford some opportunity for relaxation, which you so much deserve but which I fear you may not get, and with my warm personal regards, I am

TI'

Sincerely yours,
